HELPING VILLAGE HALLS AND COMMUNITY BUILDINGS THRIVE

YMCA Lincolnshire is part of The Action with Communities in Rural England (ACRE) Network. The aim of the network is to support rural community life in particular, rural village halls and community buildings. The YMCA operate a tailored support subscription service which is open to approximately 400+ village halls and community buildings in Lincolnshire.

YMCA Lincolnshire's Village Halls Advisory Service provides specific support to committees, relating to the running of village halls and community buildings around the county.

We provide high quality and specialist advice for village halls and community buildings through our engagement with ACRE's Community Buildings Advice Network.

We offer opportunities for community building committees to learn from each other via our regular cluster meetings. We also keep trustees informed of local and national issues. This can include changes in legislation or funding opportunities.
